The application form can be completed electronically or offline and emailed to director@rdage.com.au.

Position description

The RDA Committee member is an active contributor to the outcomes of a diverse organisation of individuals working in a complex environment to deliver high value outcomes for the community and the region. Members are active in their community and contribute to supporting local jobs and regional growth.

They are expected to leverage existing networks and develop new networks across industry sectors. RDA Committee members are required to support the Chair to attract opportunities and investment to their region. They must be knowledgeable about the economic, social, cultural and environmental opportunities and challenges facing their region; be well connected and a strong advocate for their community; and draw their community together to build and drive economic growth.

The RDA Committee member works as an effective member of the RDA Committee toward a common goal or strategy, and drives projects that target specific areas of economic development for the region. They actively support committee governance and management processes.

Accountabilities and responsibilities

RDA Committee members will be accountable to:

- The Chair – for supporting the activities of the Committee;
- Their communities – for delivering outcomes that meet regional needs;
- The funding providers – for ensuring that agreed objectives are achieved and resources invested are expended as efficiently and effectively as possible; and
- RDA Committee staff – for providing a safe and healthy workplace.

Members will be responsible for supporting the RDA Committee to meet the requirements of the charter, deliver against the outcomes, reporting requirements and performance measures specified in the RDA Funding Agreement, and for the good operational and financial governance of the overall organisation.
